

Fergal McElherron

Irish born Fergal McElherron has worked as an actor for over twenty years. His first commission as a writer led to him being nominated for the prestigious Stewart Parker Award for his play TO HAVE AND TO HOLD, and his first three radio plays were produced by RTE.

Current:

CLEFT

Original stage play

Director: Lynne Parker

Glór, Ennis – 6 – 8 June 2019

Galway Arts Festival – 22–27 July 2019

Kilkenny Arts Festival – 8 – 11 August 2019

Theatre credits:

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD Kabosh Theatre Company, Belfast

Original commission

Nominated for the Stewart Parker Award

Radio credits:

CHOPPED LIVER RTE Radio 1

Radio play

Cast included Charlene McKenna

PRODIGAL RTE Radio 1

Radio play

Cast included Domhnall Gleeson

IN THE BLINK OF AN EYE RTE Radio 1

Producer & Director Kevin Reynolds

Cast: Simone Kirby, Garrett Lombard

Fergal is represented as an actor by BWH (www.thebwhagency.co.uk)