Ben is currently writing an episode of MR SELFRIDGE series 4.

Ben has worked for ITV since 2006, starting as a runner in the drama department before becoming an assistant, and then moving into script editing in 2013. He has developed and script edited all three series of MR SELFRIDGE, working on the show since its inception.

Last year, Ben had a short film produced by Chrissy Skinns for C4's 'Random Acts' late-night strand. Directed by the 'Ballet Boyz', TOM MEET TOM starred Clive Russell and Alexander Cobb.

He is currently developing the fourth and final series of MR SELFRIDGE as Script Executive.
