Grace read Medicine at the Universities of Cambridge and Oxford, and worked as a consultant psychiatrist in Camden and Islington before switching to screenwriting full time. Grace was selected as the first ever Writer's Apprentice for Carnival Film & Television and she was also selected for the 4Screenwriting 2017 scheme. In March 2017 Grace was included on the BBC's New Talent Hotlist. She was selected for the BAFTA Elevate talent scheme for writers in 2018 and has since spoken at a number of events on behalf of BAFTA's Learning and New Talent Team. Grace is currently working on a number of script commissions with Rabbit Track, Gaumont, Carnival and Tiger Aspect.

MALPRACTICE, Grace's first original drama series, aired on ITV/ITVX in April 2023. The 5 part thriller, directed by Boiling Point's Phil Barantini, starred Niamh Algar as Dr. Lucinda Edwards.
