

CV | Thea Gajic

THEA GAJIC is an actress, writer and director born and raised in South London. Thea is currently working on her feature film SURVIVING EARTH, which has been selected as one of the twelve projects in the 2019/20 iFeatures development programme.

Thea's first short film 'RUN' won the New Talent Award at BFI Future Film Fest and was selected as BFI Postroom's Pick of The Month and Short of The Week where Thea was praised as "showcasing not only astute, rounded female characters but a strong directorial voice".

Thea's second short film 'THE IMPORTANCE OF SKIN' premiered via Short of The Week and screened at BFI. Her latest film 'ELI' was made with Film London on their London Calling 2018 Slate. Thea recently wrote and directed a short film for Stormzy that played during his Wireless Headline Set in London 2018. Thea is also a Sundance Ignite Fellow.

Film (Written/Directed)SURVIVING EARTH 2019

In Development
Feature Film
iFeatures

ELI 2018

Short Film
Film London

CIGARETTES AND CUSH 2018

Live PA Film (Stormzy)

2008: A MEMOIR 2018THE IMPORTANCE OF SKIN 2017

Haus Pictures

RUN 2016

Winner: New Talent Award at BFI Future Film Fest
BFI Postroom's Pick of the Month

Film (Directed)SORRY, WHAT 2017

CV | Thea Gajic

Film (Written)

CHINESE TAKEAWAY 2016

Theatre (Written)

BEFORE IT RAINS (National Youth Theatre, Epic Stages) 2018

Thea features on tracks with Jorja Smith, Jords and A2 as well as having collaborated on a spoken word piece for VICE TV. You can also see her starring in BBC3's 'Enterprice'.

Thea is represented for acting by Sandra Chalmers at Shepherd Management