Bill Deamer

Bill Deamer is one of Britain's leading choreographers whose extensive training is grounded in ballet, jazz and tap.

In 2017 he choreographed Follies at the National Theatre (revived in 2019) earning his third Olivier Award nomination. He won the 2013 Olivier Award for Best Choreographer for the West End production of Top Hat.

Bill is also a very successful choreographer for film & television, most notably for So You Think You Can Dance, ITV's All Star Musicals, and the hit BBC series Strictly Come Dancing where he regularly contributes featured group professional routines.
